LIBRARY REPORT, 1914.

The trustees of the Andover Town Library submit the following report for the year ending Feb. 15, 1914.

The number of books issued at the Center Village was 2634; and the number of borrowers was 205. At East Andover the number of books issued last year was 1011, and the number of borrowers 119. At Taunton Hill probably a thousand books were issued.

Our library is recognized by all who know it as an excellent, well-selected collection of books. It is increasingly used and useful.

It is better to read than to loaf, and you soon get to like it better. Try it.
